Larrakia Stories for the LCC

As the Larrakia Cultural Centre (LCC) continues to develop, the Larrakia Development Corporation (LDC) continues to broaden its conversations with Larrakia families and the community.

Over the past three and a half years the LDC has worked closely with the LCC Larrakia Working Group to inform cultural inputs into the LCC's purpose and design. The Working Group in turn has been sharing the story of the LCC with family and stakeholders.

This collective knowledge has fed into the importance of the LCC's spaces and purpose over the course of the project, and in particular, the LCC's exhibition space.

The exhibition space will showcase the Larrakia story, culture and country through the following themes:

- Larrakia Historical Timeline
- Ancestral Treasures
- Larrakia Families
- Larrakia Estate
- On Larrakia Country
- Watercraft

The LDC is now seeking inputs into the story telling of Larrakia history from members of the Larrakia community. The things to consider are:

- Stories or items that demonstrate Larrakia family connections,
- Historical moments, as an example images from WWII or the fight for land rights,
- Stories and images of connection and caring for country,
- Images and stories demonstrating the historical timeline of Larrakia people.

We encourage all the Larrakia families to speak with members of the LDC Project team via info@larrakiaculturalcentre.com.au and with the LCC Larrakia Working Group members to provide any information your family would like to share within the LCC.

The Members of the LCC Larrakia Working Group are:

- Mark Motlop
- Bill Risk
- Chrissy Jenner
- Helen Secretary
- June Mills
- Joe Raymond
- Kelvin Costello
- Nadine Lee
